ANNOUNCEMENT

Yaoundé, 11 March 2017

2nd Batch of Cameroon Volunteers for Germany.

After 2016, Young people (girls and boys) aged 18 to 28 are having another opportunity to be part of an international voluntary service in Germany (August 2017 – August 2018). The first promotion of Cameroonian volunteers sent to Germany last year is now spending their year of volunteerism (October 2016 – October 2017).

Young girls and boys (aged 18 to 28) interested in volunteering in Germany are informed that the call for interest for the 2017/2018 promotion is now opened.

Selected volunteers will be fully supported except for the passport and visa fees. However, visa procedures will be facilitated by World Dynamics of Young People (WDYP) in collaboration with the South - North component of the Weltwärts Program in Germany.

The 12-month voluntary service is provided in social centers and institutions. For this second promotion, voluntary service will mainly take place in hospices or elderly homes and in hospitals for the period August 2017 - August 2018.

Other places of placement such as child care centers, nursery schools or schools for handicapped children may be available.
